C. Facts: I was employed by Uber for a little over 2 years. Every year I had to be cleared for a Record check, which was Criminal and a check of your Motor vehicle driving record. Now I also had to take a Record check before even getting cleared to drive for them. When Uber conduct these Record checks they disable your driving App. Therefore your app will not come back on to after the Record check is complete. Also The Record check people send them email to check your status. However when I received a email, I called CheckR, which they told me I had something on my Criminal Record from over 12 years ago, and I was already cleared to drive for Uber. After calling Uber and speaking to someone, they told me that I can't drive for them anymore because of the Criminal Charged from 12 years

What happened to you?

Who did what?

Was anyone else involved?

Who else saw what happened?
